This event will showcase immersive training for construction worker safety. The demonstration will feature 360-degree immersive videos that explain the safety risks associated with the use of drones on a job site. Furthermore, we will illustrate how virtual reality can serve as an effective training tool to enhance a worker's capacity to recognize and understand safety risks on a project.