

Texas Target Communities (TxTC) partners with communities to assist them with needs that would otherwise go unmet through training on best practices, by equipping with tools, and by supplementing local capacity with faculty and student time and talent. We will be sharing information with an engagement activity to get students aware and interested in community-engaged projects.