

This display table at the COA Showcase is designed to highlight the Master of Architecture and Career Change degree programs in our College. The Career Change program is designed for students with non-architecture related degrees who wish to pursue architecture. And our Master of Architecture is an accredited degree that prepares students to practice architecture on a professional level.