Private Practice

1998- Present - Brown Reynolds Watford Architects, - College Station, Texas, Principal

The College Station studio open in 1998 has grown from 2 employees to over 30 employees. Oversee all aspects of the office including project management, project design, marketing, quality control, project budgeting, specification writing, consultant coordination, client liaison and construction administration, staffing, and scheduling. Projects types consist of municipal, state, county, and federal government, Higher education, K-12 schools, and commercial. I bring a unique addition to the BRW team with a diverse international design background that is blended with an extensive architecture and landscape design expertise.

1997-1998 – SWA Landscape Architects, Houston, Texas, Project Landscape Architect.

Designed pedestrian walkway and plaza in the medical district for St. Joseph hospital in Houston, Texas. The walkway consisted of hardscape, plantings, seating, and lighting and signage. Also designed the hardscape for the Federal Express Headquarters located in Memphis, Tennessee consisting of plazas, pedestrian ways, lighting, and signage for 6 corporate buildings.

1996-1997 – HOK Architects, - Houston, Texas, Project Architect.

Designed one of three new buildings for Compaq computers and provided curtain wall details for the two 10 story office buildings from schematic design through construction documents. Also designed presidential plaza consisting of two 5 story buildings located near George Bush International Airport.

1992-1996 – Helmut Jahn Architects, - Chicago, Illinois, Design Architect

Contributed design concepts on projects, work directly with Helmut Jahn on various high-rise, airport competitions, developed Helmut's sketches and designs into reality, also assisted project managers. Assigned one of 7 buildings for Sony European headquarters located in Berlin, Germany that consisted of retail, Imax theater, restaurants, and 6 stories of apartments. Assisted on the facades of 3 other buildings of the complex in curtain wall details including window pattern and custom metal panels. Also, assisted the landscape architect on the plaza design, plantings, and seating.

1991 – Summer – RTKL, Dallas, Texas – Intern Architect.

Designed a retail center in Mexico City from early schematics through design development. Various responsibilities included development of character sketches, spatial configuration, design alternatives, food court layout, computer graphics, material selection and presentations.

1990 – Summer – Leo A. Daly, Omaha, Nebraska, Intern Architect.

Designed a non-denominational church and fountain for St. Joseph's Hospital, both in Omaha. I was involved on projects such as the design of master plan for the Highlands Sub-division, University of Nebraska Master Plan, both located in Lincoln, Nebraska. Other responsibilities included presentations, photography, renderings, sketches, model building, and research.

1989 – Summer - Nebraska Nurseries – Designed residential as well as commercial landscapes in which I oversaw and assisted in the installations.
